in hedgehog fibres sock yarn

© Kieran Foley 2019

This pdf is to be read in conjunction with the Camino Bubbles pattern, which is available for purchase here.

Knit on 3.5mm/US4 needles with one skein, 400m/437yds of Hedgehog Fibres sock yarn Pod colorway, and five Sock Minis, each 80m/87yds: Guppy, Oracle, Sorry Not Sorry, Anime, and Sin. I used approximately 180g/720m/790yds, so there are some leftovers.

Gauge: approximately 18 stitches and 25 rows = 4ins/10cm in stocking stitch Finished dimensions:
approximately 160cm/62ins by 53cm/21ins

Notes

This project uses the small bubbles version of the pattern - please read the notes and instructions for this version in the pattern pdf.

Instructions

CO113 with Pod, and work the ribbing.
Continuing with Pod, work rows 1 - 6 of chart A or section A of the written pattern.
Change to Guppy for rows 7 - 18 of chart A/section A

Work rows 1 - 12 of chart B/section B with Pod
Work rows 13 - 24 of chart B/section B with Oracle
Repeat all rows of chart B/section B, changing colors every twelve rows. I spliced yarn ends at color changes, see phototutorial on page 4.

You can use the color distribution as shown on the next page, or create your own color distribution.
In one twelve row section I spliced three colorways together (marked "F,B,C" on the color distribution image).

To finish, work chart C/section C in Pod, and work the ribbing and BO in Pod. Block with straight long sides and short sides pinned into points.

splicing yarn ends

1. feather the yarn ends: unwind the plies, break them at different points, about 1 inch/2cm apart, and tease out the fibres

2. thread yarn A onto needle

3. insert the needle into yarn B between the 2 plies, near the start of the feathering

4. pull needle and yarn A through yarn B

5. pull yarn A back out of yarn B leaving the feathered end of yarn A between plies of yarn B

6. piercing yarn B with the needle tip, insert the needle into yarn A between the 2 plies, as close as possible to the point where yarn A went into yarn B

7. thread the feathered end of yarn B onto the needle

8. pull the needle and yarn B through yarn A and remove the needle tug to ensure the join is good!
